Amendment of Rule 3.206 of the Michigan Court Rules

On order of the Court, notice of the proposed changes and an opportunity for comment in writing and at a public hearing having been provided, and consideration having been given to the comments received, the following amendment of Rule 3.206 of the Michigan Court Rules is adopted, effective September 1, 2003.

[The present language is amended as indicated below.]

Rule 3.206 Pleading

(A) - (B) [Unchanged.]

(C) Attorney Fees and Expenses.

- (1) A party may, at any time, request that the court order the other party to pay all or part of the attorney fees and expenses related to the action or a specific proceeding, including a post-judgment proceeding.
- (2) A party who requests attorney fees and expenses must allege facts sufficient to show that
 - (a) the party is unable to bear the expense of the action, and that the other party is able to pay, or
 - (b) the attorney fees and expenses were incurred because the other party refused to comply with a previous court order, despite having the ability to comply.

Staff Comment: The April 1, 2003, amendment of MCR 3.206(C), effective September 1, 2003, was suggested by the Michigan Judges Association to (1) reduce the number of hearings that occur because of a litigant's vindictive or wrongful behavior, (2) shift the costs associated with wrongful conduct to the party engaging in the improper behavior, (3) remove the ability of a vindictive litigant to apply financial pressure to the opposing party, (4) create a financial incentive for attorneys to accept a wronged party as a client, and (5) foster respect for court orders.

The staff comment is published only for the benefit of the bench and bar and is not an authoritative construction by the Court.

I, CORBIN R. DAVIS, Clerk of the Michigan Supreme Court, certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of the order entered at the direction of the Court.
